Catalog Description:
The Jesus Seminar has produced two studies on the authentic Words and Deeds of the historical Jesus. Responding to this new critical data, and with the assistance of notable scholars of religion, history and science, the Seminar continues to consider the significance of Jesus for a future of Faith in a global culture. Scholars will continue to work on other aspects of biblical text and history. Students may attend and participate in most seminars. For a complete and current description of this spring's Seminar topics and speakers see www.JesusSeminar.org.
