COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to analyze, rehearse, memorize, and perform characters from modern realistic plays in a variety of performance situations at a beginning acting level.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Apply and demonstrate control of basic vocal acting techniques, including projection, articulation, and breath support.
2. Apply and demonstrate control of basic physical acting techniques, including relaxation, "alert restfulness," and motivated action.
3. Develop and demonstrate ability to concentrate and maintain focus, awareness, and spontaneity while acting.
4. Demonstrate basic techniques of physical and vocal characterization.
5. Use direct observation and basic research techniques in creating a character.
6. Analyze a script and document that analysis, applying basic principles and techniques of Stanislavski-based psychological realism to develop a character.
7. Work collaboratively within partnered and/or ensemble acting situations in the development of characters, whether scripted or improvised.
8. Apply basic improvisational acting techniques, including listening, responding, being in the moment, focusing, "saying yes," and respecting one another.
9. Memorize, retain, and accurately perform scripted text.
10. Assess and critique a performance from an observer's point of view, applying constructive evaluation techniques in identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the acting within that performance.
11. Correctly use acting terminology and basic staging concepts during the rehearsal and performance process.

12. Rehearse, prepare, memorize, and perform a role in a partnered scene from a modern realistic play.
13. Rehearse, prepare, memorize, and perform a realistic monologue from a modern play, following basic audition protocol and procedures.

Assignment:

[All assignments below apply to both Lecture and Lab portions of the course.]

Class Attendance and Participation - The student is expected to:

- 1. Arrive promptly and prepared for all class meetings.
- 2. Participate actively in a variety of acting exercises, theatre games, and improv pieces, as well as class discussions.

Homework and Assignments

This class requires approximately four hours per week of homework and out-of class rehearsal for performance assignments.

Reading Homework

The student will read approx. 5-20 pages per week.

- A. Textbook, course reader, and/or other instructor prepared materials.
- B. Two scripts - one for monologue assignment and one for scene assignment.

Performance Assignments

- A. Prepare and perform 3-6 graded acting exercises, demonstrating various performance skills. Exercises range from 30 sec.-5 minutes in length.
Examples:
 - 1. Tongue twister exercise (to access application of articulation skills)
 - 2. Observation exercise (observing and performing someone else)
 - 3. Public solitude exercise (concentration and focus on stage)
 - 4. Given Circumstances exercise (applying given circumstances in order to motivate action)

5. Open scene exercise (working with transitive, active verbs)

B. Monologue: Prepare, memorize, rehearse, and perform a monologue from a stage play, presenting it in an audition format.

1. Recommended criteria for monologue selection:

- a. From a published play that the student can find and read
- b. Acting style of scene - realism
- c. From a modern/contemporary play, preferably written after 1940
- d. Length: 1- 1 1/2 minute

2. Monologue selection:

May be assigned by instructor, selected by student from a pre-approved collection or list, and/or selected by student from library and department collections with instructor assistance. (Students with prior performance experience may be allowed to find monologues independently with instructor approval.)

3. Rehearsal process and evaluation:

Each student will receive instructor coaching and observe the coaching sessions for other students. During the development process, the student's progress will be evaluated by the instructor a minimum of three times:

- a. On-book rehearsal
- b. Off-book rehearsal
- c. Final performance

C. Scene: Prepare, memorize, rehearse, and perform a partnered scene from a stage play.

1. Recommended criteria for scene selection:

- a. From a published stage play, which each actor must find and read.
- b. Acting style of scene - realism
- c. From a modern/contemporary play, preferably written after 1940
