COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to fulfill the responsibilities of an singer in the preparation, rehearsal, and performance of a vocal role in a musical theatre production for a public audience.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate the professional responsibilities of a singing actor while participating in the preparation and performance process of a musical.
2. Independently analyze a musical score, both technically and from a character's point of view.
3. Work cooperatively within a high- stress environment to produce a collaborative work of art.
4. Create and sustain the physical, vocal, and behavioral components of a character within each song, while retaining the style of the musical.
5. Integrate the elements of singing, dancing and acting, even when learned separately.
6. Memorize all musical material (solo, small group, and ensemble numbers) quickly and accurately, retaining lyrics, music, and technical notes.
7. Revise, experiment with, and enhance vocal choices as instructed by the vocal director and production director during the rehearsal process.
8. Maintain good vocal health through a rehearsal and performance process.
9. Adapt to the stimulation and input of live audiences while maintaining focus and concentration.
10. Reproduce a successful vocal characterization in multiple performances presented over a period of time.

A student repeating this course will be preparing and performing an entirely new vocal role from a different musical. Repeating students will:

- Work with different directorial styles and production processes.
