COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Students will:

1. Recognize the major characteristics of six major wine varieties.
2. Explain the differences between various winemaking techniques and styles.
3. Evaluate Sonoma County's position from both an objective perspective and within the framework of a worldwide overview.
4. Discuss wine varieties compared to locations grown.
5. Identify leading environments for the six major wine varieties.

Topics and Scope:

- I. Overview of Sonoma County's position in the wine industry nationally and internationally.
- II. Why we grow the different varieties in certain applications as opposed to others.
- III. What affects the different varieties - from the vineyard to the winemaking techniques to achieve the styles that wineries sell.
- IV. Tasting the raw product - barrel samples - from the different vineyards to show the students what characteristics are used to blend into the finished product.
- V. Comparisons of different foods to different wine varieties; why certain wines lend themselves to specific foods.
- VI. Discuss current trends that consumer preferences are during the varietal markets. Where are we now? Where will we be in five years time?
