COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the professional responsibilities of an actor while participating in the preparation and performance process.
2. Independently analyze and score a script from a character's point of view, as well as conduct research in preparation for a role in a full production.
3. Prioritize and fulfill acting responsibilities, while striving to maintain other academic, employment, and personal responsibilities.
4. Work cooperatively within a high stress environment to produce a collaborative work of art.
5. Create and sustain the physical, vocal, and behavioral components of a character within the style of the play.
6. Revise, experiment with, and enhance acting choices as instructed by the director during the rehearsal process, and maintain that direction in performance.
7. Contribute to one or more production support areas, recognizing each area's relationship to the actor's work and the production as a whole.
8. Adhere to proper theatre protocol and correctly apply theatre terminology during a production process.
9. Adapt to the stimulation and input of live audiences while maintaining focus and concentration.
10. Reproduce a successful characterization in multiple performances presented over a period of time.

A student repeating this course will be preparing and performing an entirely new role from a different non-musical play. Repeating students will be:

- Working with different directorial styles and production processes.
- Analyzing different dramatic texts, improving analytical skills and developing greater versatility in characterization.
- Gaining greater confidence as a performer and enhancing acting skills by performing in front of diverse audiences.

Assignment:

1. Prepare rehearsal material in a timely manner as required by the production schedule:
  - a. Independently complete script and character analysis and research work, revising as needed during the rehearsal process.
  - b. Record, review, and retain blocking.
  - c. Accurately memorize lines and cues by the scheduled deadline.
  - d. Memorize and safely review special skills required by the production - dialects/accents, stage combat, circus skills, dance, music/singing, puppetry, mask, mime, etc.
2. Attend all scheduled rehearsals for which the actor is called. Communicate potential schedule conflicts prior to final casting. Conflicts communicated after casting may be turned down by the director or may result in removal from the production (and class).
3. Adhere to the standards of professionalism:
  - a. Arrive promptly and prepared for all rehearsals, costume/makeup calls, and performances.
  - b. Maintain an amiable and supportive attitude when interacting with other members of the production company - fellow actors, director, stage manager, technicians, and designers.
  - c. Respectfully follow the director's instructions in the preparation of the role and maintain that direction in performance.
  - d. Perform assigned role in a conscientious and dedicated manner.
  - e. Do not alter physical appearance in any manner without permission.
  - f. Strive to maintain good personal health and safety practices throughout the rehearsal and performance process.
  - g. Follow the terms of the Actor's Contract and course syllabus for the production.
4. Respond dependably to time commitments outside of rehearsals:
  - a. Costume fittings
  - b. Photo shoots
  - c. Makeup conferences
5. Provide personal stage makeup supplies (makeup kit) as per the requirements of the actor's role determined by the makeup designer.
6. Contribute to the production process by completing ten-twelve Production Support Hours working in the scene shop, costume shop, ushering for other Theatre Arts productions, and/or helping with publicity (distributing posters and flyers, helping with lobby display, appearing at promotion events, etc.). While it is preferred that the majority of hours be spent on the production in which the actor is cast, the hours may be applied to other productions in the same semester (deadline determined by the director).

7. Participate in all aspects of the rehearsal and performance process, including strike.
