COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- 1 Analyze representative works of the visual arts, film, drama, music, literature, and/or philosophy/religion from culturally diverse groups within Latin America and the Caribbean.
2. Relate works to their historical and/or cultural context.
3. Compare and contrast the cultural experiences and cultural expressions of three or more cultural groups in Latin America and the Caribbean.
4. Participate in cultural activities outside of class by attendance at museum visits, lectures, forums, performances, films, poetry readings, etc. as well as scheduled field trips.
- 5 Examine their own ideas, values, beliefs, and experiences in comparison with the ideas, values, beliefs, and experiences of other cultural or ethnic groups in Latin America and the Caribbean.
6. Demonstrate in writing the ability to analyze, compare and contrast, to weigh arguments, to examine values, and to integrate materials from several disciplines.

Topics and Scope:

1. The course will focus on representative primary works of visual art, music, film, drama, literature and philosophy/religion which represent a variety of cultural expressions in the Caribbean and

Latin America from the earliest indigenous cultures to the present day.

2. The course will address major theoretical or analytical issues relevant to understanding the meaning of and dynamic interactions between race, ethnicity and gender in the Caribbean and Latin America.
3. In addition, the course may examine how issues of class, sexual orientation, age, religion, or disability impact cultural expression or cultural participation in the Caribbean and Latin America.
4. Works which are chosen will be studied within their historical and/or cultural context.
5. The course may be structured either thematically or chronologically.
6. The course may be team taught or supplemented by lectures or presentations from a variety of disciplines related to the study of the Caribbean and Latin American cultures.

Assignment:

1. Careful reading and analysis of assigned primary texts.
2. Reading assignments related to establishing historical or cultural context.
3. Examinations, including quizzes, mid-term, final, and/or take-home exam.
4. Written essays requiring students to analyze representative works of literature, visual art, music, drama, film, or philosophy/religion.
5. Written essays requiring students to compare and contrast; examine ideas, values, beliefs, and experiences; and/or to integrate two or more disciplines.
6. Participation in cultural activities, including museum visits, concerts, poetry readings, lectures, and field trips (optional field trips).
7. Creative projects (optional, depending on instructor).
