COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify various approaches in abstract painting, including the major movements in 20th century abstraction.
2. Analyze and describe the language of abstraction using appropriate terminology.
3. Adopt a non-figurative language to create a painting.
4. Apply abstract ideas and approaches in personal compositions.
5. Describe the strengths and weaknesses of their own and others' paintings in a critique.
6. Repeating students will also be able to:
 - a. Integrate different / wider variety of approaches in abstract painting into original compositions.
 - b. Further develop and expand personal imagery.

Topics and Scope:

- I. Overview of 20th century abstraction.
- II. Geometric: Examples of seminal formal paintings of Constructivism and de Stijl.
- III. Line: Examples of the different uses of line in abstract painting from the improvisational and gestural approach of Jackson Pollock and Brice Marden and systematic methods of Sol LeWitt and Frank Stella.
- IV. Color: Color field and monochromatic painting. Artists discussed: Josef Albers, Hans Hofmann, Mark Rothko, Barnett Newman, and Ad Reinhardt.
- V. Gesture: Expressive content through the physical act of paint application. Examples: Willem de Kooning and other improvisational painters of the Abstract Expressionist era.

VI. Process: Paintings whose conception and manner of execution is integral to their content. Examples: Helen Frankenthaler and Morris Louis, painting using extended techniques.

VII. Critique: Aesthetic and conceptual success of abstract works.

VIII. Repeat: Integrating new approaches and further developing and expanding personal imagery.

Assignment:

Assignments may include any or all of the following:

1. Creating a painting in which geometric shapes are the prominent feature.
2. Creating a painting through the exclusive use of line.
3. Forming a painting through the use of color.
4. Achieving expressive content through the physical act of paint application.
5. Creating a painting through the use of extended techniques, such as staining.
6. Critiquing the aesthetic and conceptual success of one's own and other students' work.
7. Repeating students will:
 - a. Complete paintings based on different approaches / movements in abstraction.
 - b. Demonstrate development and expansion of personal imagery and approaches.
