COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Synthesize receptive and expressive American Sign Language (ASL) skills and participate in a variety of dialogues involving basic, everyday topics.
2. Comprehend and articulate a range of spatial and geographic relationships in ASL.
3. Describe and identify other people.
4. Apply appropriate Deaf culture rules of social interaction to more advanced communication situations within the Deaf community or between Deaf and hearing people.
5. Identify, describe, and compare the qualities of people/objects using contrastive structures.

Topics and Scope:

1. Asking for and giving directions using ASL, including non-manual markers
2. Using ordinal and cardinal numbers in real life situations
3. Describing the predominant physical features of a person (personal qualities and attributes)
4. Naming and describing common articles of clothing (use of classifiers)
5. Using facial expressions and non-manual markers (i.e. inflecting verbs, making statements, asking questions, affect, conveying relative distance)
6. Giving third-party commands/requests involving objects and furniture
7. Identifying real life problems and providing or requesting solutions
8. Buying and selling using cash, credit, debit, and personal checks (numbers up to 1000)
9. Identifying and describing occupations

10. Describing families, including relative ages, educational background, living/dead, marital status, and "how long" questions
11. Using contrastive structures comparing, confirming or refuting qualities and opinions
12. Describing personal routines and temporal sequencing
13. Narrating with one and two character role-shifting
14. Storytelling
15. Summarizing Deaf culture and Deaf/hearing interactions and Deaf history

Assignment:

1. Lesson(s) from the textbook (average 6-10 pages per week)
2. Memorize signed vocabulary and verb conjugations (average 75-100 signs per week)
3. Complete practice exercises from the workbook, video and teacher-prepared materials (6-8 per week)
4. 5 tests per semester (1 test per chapter/unit, midterm will cover first 3 chapters/units, final exam is cumulative)
5. In-class participation (i.e. role-play, dialogues, storytelling)
6. Group presentations (at least 3 group presentations will be graded).
7. Enact short stories and narratives in ASL (at least 2 individual story performances will be graded)
8. Three to four 2-3 page reflective summaries on ASL-related or Deaf culture topics based on reading/video assignments
9. Produce a calendar-based timeline of a person's personal activities or routines.
10. Computer-based exercises through DVD and computer resources (i.e. links illustrating ASL vocabulary and links related to Deaf culture, history and current events)
