COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

GOALS:

I. COMMUNITY RELATIONS CONCEPT

- A. To develop an awareness of the problems confronting the relationship of the Criminal Justice System and their community as well as the need for a criminal justice practitioner partnership in developing community resources and crime prevention programs.
- B. To develop an awareness that community relations are not the unique concerns of specialized units, but rather the concern of a department's entire personnel. Community relations are not exclusively a matter of special programs, but a matter that touches on all aspects of the Criminal Justice System.
- C. To examine the communication process with a view to fostering and improving communications and understanding between the criminal justice practitioner and the community.
- D. To identify objectives for the Criminal Justice System and the community to achieve in order to understand and appreciate the nature and causes of the complex problems in people-to-people relations, with a view to improving minority and/or sub-culture group relationships.

II. CULTURAL DIVERSITY (LD 42.1)

- A. To develop an awareness of the cultural backgrounds on at least (7) ethnic groupings.
- B. To provide knowledge of California laws which define cultural groups.
- C. To provide an understanding of how the cultural composition of California is changing and how this change is impacting the delivery of law enforcement services.
- D. To provide an understanding of the benefits of valuing diversity both within a law enforcement organization and within the community it serves.
- E. To provide information concerning the evolution of human rights, the nature and origins of prejudice, the nature and origins of discrimination, and how understanding these issues can contribute to more effective cultural contacts.
- F. To provide an understanding of how current events or recent experiences can shape the attitude of cultural groups towards law enforcement and towards other cultural groups.
- G. To provide an understanding of the difference between cultural stereotyping and law enforcement profiling.
- H. To provide an understanding of principles associated with professional community contacts and techniques for effective interaction with cultural groups.
- I. To provide an opportunity for individual self-discovery concerning cultural contact experience and personal prejudices.

Instruction is designed to provide fundamental training on how to professionally interact with a broad spectrum of cultural groups.

Content is intended to complement locally-developed training which specifically addresses the history, customs, religious conventions, or core values of cultural groups within the community served.

III. SEXUAL HARASSMENT (LE 42.1)
