COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Effectively perform dance pieces on stage within the context of a dance concert.
2. Apply appropriate production practices associated with a public performance.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate professionalism and knowledge of the responsibilities of a dancer associated with performing in a dance concert.
2. Recognize and solve many of the problems associated with the adaptation of dance from the studio to the stage.
3. Apply traditional theatrical terminology and protocol in the context of a dance concert.
4. Apply dance techniques on stage as required by demands of choreography.
5. Implement appropriate performance skills such as facial expression, projection, clarity of movement, and appropriate movement qualities.

From production to production the dance(s) performed will vary, placing new and different demands on the performer. The following are examples of factors that will change in each subsequent production thus providing a new learning experience for the repeating student:

- The choreographers (faculty and students) and their particular requirements for their work
- The style and required performance qualities for a particular piece
- The genre of the choreography (modern, jazz, ballet, hip-hop, etc.)
- Whether the pieces are solos, duets, trios, or ensemble works
- Specialized skills required by the choreography such as partnering, acrobatics, prop manipulation, pointe work, improvisation, and characterization
