COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

- 1. The of this course is to present a chronological survey of German literature in English translation so that students having litte or no knowledge of German can appreciate German literary masterpieces.
- 2. The class will primarily focus on complete works by major German authors who are universally known and whose writings still have considerable relevance to 20th century readers.
- 3. The main focus of the course will be on the works themselves as literature, and lectures will aim at helping students to understand and appreciate works read.
- 4. Students will be encouraged to ask questions and to share and critique each other's ideas in class discussions.
- 5. The instructor will try to show what is specifically "German" (as well as universal) in German literature and to foster a sensitivity to ideas and values within a culture that is in many respects very different from their own.

Topics and Scope:

- 1. The course will provide an introduction to each historical period so that students can understand the context witin which the various authors wrote.
- 2. Students will be made familiar with the main social, political and artistic trends of each period, and these will be related to such questions as the author's motivations in writing and the content and style of his or her works.
- 3. Significant biographical details will be provided for each author.

Assignment:

- 1. There will be 3 tests (one on each of the first three chapters) as well as a final (cumulative, but with an emphasis on the final time period).
- 2. The tests will contain an initial factual component (multiple choice, quote identification, brief informational questions).
- 3. This will test the student's knowledge of historical background, author's biographies, and the contents of works read.
- 4. A second part will consist of several essay questions which will allow students to exercise their critical abilities by analyzing and interpreting aspects of works that have been read.
