COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Effectively perform assigned roles in a dance piece. Note: Effective performance consists of accurate reproduction of choreography as well as integration of dance skills, techniques, styles, and performance qualities that are appropriate to the genre, movement vocabulary, theme, and intent of a piece.
2. Demonstrate professional conduct in dance rehearsals and performances.

Objectives:

Upon completion of the course students will be able to:

1. List and explain essential components of professionalism in a dance rehearsal and in performance.
2. Demonstrate the ability to warm up effectively for a rehearsal or performance.
3. Perform dance movement with full commitment and physicality during rehearsals.
4. Assimilate and demonstrate choreography as specified by a choreographer in rehearsal.
5. Display ability to rapidly pick up complex movement sequences.
6. Retain choreography, both in terms of movement material and intention, from rehearsal to rehearsal, as well as in performance.
7. Integrate a choreographer's unique style into their dancing.
8. Apply appropriate dance techniques and skills in rehearsal.
9. Perform a dance work (in rehearsal and on stage) with accuracy of rhythm (counts), shapes, steps, lines, focuses, and/or nuances of style.
10. Apply appropriate performance qualities both in rehearsal and on stage.
11. Articulate both orally and in writing the theme, intention, storyline if applicable, and formal attributes of a dance piece in which they are cast.

Repeating Students: The choreography will vary widely from semester to semester; therefore, the skills required to meet the demands of the choreography vary offering a new learning experience each semester. Students will deepen and expand their abilities as dance artists with each repetition.

Topics and Scope:

Note that each time the course is offered, the choreographer, genre and the dance piece the students rehearse will change.

I. Context and Content of a Dance Piece

- A. Genre
- B. Inspirations
- C. Influences on the choreographer
- D. History if applicable (i.e. if the piece was performed before)
- E. Intent of the piece
- F. Formal elements such as structure of the piece; choreographic devices; use of space, time and energy
- G. Aesthetic elements such as sets, props, and costuming
- H. Theme, symbolism, imagery
- I. Movement vocabulary, techniques, qualities, and styles peculiar to the piece
- J. Counts or phrasing of the dance material.

II. Rehearsal Processes

- A. Warmup segment: current information on the elements of an effective warmup
- B. Professionalism in the context of a dance rehearsal
 - 1. Universal principles
 - 2. Choreographer-specific expectations
- C. Assimilating movement sequences more quickly
- D. Dance- and genre-specific techniques
- E. Phrase work - learning the raw material that will be manipulated to form a piece.
Will vary from choreographer to choreographer but includes focus on areas such as:
 - 1. Counts and steps
 - 2. Uncounted sequences informed by music or breath
 - 3. Shapes, lines, focuses
 - 4. Movement qualities
 - 5. Use of Imagery
- F. Depending on choreographic process may include improvisation and co-creative processes
- G. Depending on choreography, may include contact and partnering work
- H. Depending on genre may include special skills (for example pointe work in a ballet piece, inversions in a modern piece)
- I. Staging - formations, spacing, exits, entrances
- J. Cleaning (perfecting details of the choreography)

III. Performance Skills such as:

- A. Communication of choreographic intent in facial expression and body language
- B. Displaying performance energy
- C. Projection and focus
- D. Appropriate style and qualities for a particular genre and work
- E. Clarity of movement
- F. Holding spacing in formations

Repeating students will demonstrate increased depth and breadth of related skills.

Assignment:

In Class Assignments:

- 1. Conduct self-warmup or participate in group warmups.
- 2. Actively listen to conveyed information on context and content of a piece.

3. Participate fully in rehearsal processes physically and mentally.
4. Perform choreography full out with performance qualities in rehearsals.
5. Practice professionalism in all rehearsals.

Outside Assignments:

1. Practice and memorize assigned choreography sufficiently to be able perform it accurately in the next rehearsal or in performance. Amount of practice time necessary will vary from student to student.
2. Light reading assignments: 1 or 2 page hand-outs that connect to the work the student is learning may be provided (optional).
3. Written analysis of the dance piece(s) in which student is cast focusing on both contextual elements (such as genre of the work studied and theme) and the aesthetic elements incorporated into the piece(s).

Repeating students will demonstrate increased depth and breadth in completion of assignments.
