COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Rehearse, prepare, and perform standard art song and operatic repertoire in a formal recital.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate technical facility for the voice (scales, melismas, ornaments, etc.).
2. Perform vocal literature with proper pronunciation, diction, and articulation.
3. Analyze the melodic, harmonic, rhythmic, and formal structure of the compositions being studied.
4. Define and discuss the elements of music as they appear in the repertoire and explain how they determine style.
5. Evaluate various styles of music as they relate to performance.
6. Demonstrate proper performance practice, stage deportment, and recital preparation.
7. Plan, organize, and demonstrate integrated practice procedures.
8. Critically evaluate their own performance and the performances of others.

Students repeating this course will be able to:

1. Demonstrate greater technical achievement with the voice.
2. Articulate musical phrases with greater clarity.

3. Perform with higher standards of intonation.
4. Perform more difficult repertoire.

Topics and Scope:

I. Individual Instruction Module (TBA Lab)

- A. Rehearsal and preparation of standard operatic and art song repertoire for voice
- B. Technical exercises (scales, melismas, ornaments, etc.) appropriate to the individual student's level of ability
- C. Vocalises and/or other study pieces to improve technical and interpretive abilities
- D. Lyric diction and pronunciation for the language(s) being studied
- E. Memorization techniques for selected assigned compositions
- F. The harmonic, rhythmic, and formal structure of the compositions being studied
- G. Background information on the composers of assigned repertoire - how their compositions reflect the culture and style of a given era

II. Recital Hour Module (Lecture)

- A. Stage deportment and recital preparation
- B. Rehearsal and practice techniques
- C. Coping with stage fright
- D. Preparing for an audition
- E. Objective evaluation and critique of musical performance
- F. Student performances (each student must perform at least once per semester)
- G. Master class performances (when scheduling permits)
- H. Juried examination before a faculty committee at the end of each semester as a final examination
- I. Additional topics as appropriate relating to professional careers in music.

III. Practice Module (TBA Lab)

Guided practice of materials and techniques presented in the previous modules

(Students repeating this course will perform new music each semester, building on both their skill level and knowledge of the repertoire.)

Assignment:

All course modules (lecture/lab):

1. Rehearse and prepare assigned repertoire for recital and juried performance
2. Memorization of selected repertoire may be required
3. Listening assignments as needed to enhance abilities of evaluation, critical judgment, and discrimination (ungraded)

Recital Hour (lecture):

4. Concert attendance report (2-3 pages) focusing on critical evaluation of a musical performance
5. Minimum of one class performance per semester during Recital Hour
6. Final juried performance

Practice Module (TBA lab):

7. Practice other etudes and/or study pieces as assigned

Students repeating this course will be held to higher standards of performance with each repetition.
