Outcomes and Objectives:

READING - From expository essay and argumentative essays at or above grade 13 level, students will:

- 1. Abstract the main idea or thesis.
- 2. Articulate the sequencing or order of the ideas presented.
- 3. Explain how the writer supports and illustrates ideas and connect them to the thesis.
- 4. Paraphrase and summarize paragraphs and essays.
- 5. Annotate an essay with appropriate comments.
- 6. Identify the stylistic features of an essay.
- 7. Identify an essay's tone.
- 8. Distinguish between literal and inferential information and identify the use of assumptions and biases.
- 9. Identify argumentative techniques and recognize logical fallacies.
- 10. Identify their opinions and assumptions in relation to reading material.

WRITING - Students will:

- 1. Write 6,000 to 8,000 words in expository and argumentative essays, each with a clearly identifiable thesis.
- 2. Organize their essay, paragraphs, and sentences logically and coherently.
- 3. Develop paragraphs with concrete, appropriate, and relevant details.
- 4. Write essays which express a mature attitude toward their subject with a consistent and appropriate point of view.
- 5. Write argumentative essays responding to opposing arguments and - avoiding logical fallacies.

- 6. Revise their prose for clarity, precision, and variety of sentences; correct diction; and appropriate voice.
- 7. Recognize and correct errors in punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
- 8. Demonstrate familiarity with elementary library research techniques and with the basic reference works and facilities of the college library.

Topics and Scope:

NOTE: The following represents general criteria and typical content. Particular themes and emphasis are published every year in the English Department bulletin, A HUNDRED DOORS.

READING-

- 1. Students read a number of essays during the semester with emphasis on critical reading involving analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of ideas from several essays/authors.
- 2. Readings are followed by class discussions/exercises to examine and learn the above objectives.
- 3. All students read/study/analyze the English Department's Work of Literary Merit for the particular semester.

WRITING-

- 1. Students write significant number of essays during the semester of various lengths, amounting to 6,000 to 8,000 words.
- 2. Some essays may be primarily narrative/descriptive but the course emphasizes expository/informative and argumentative/persuasive prose.
- 3. Revision skills are frequently taught using writers' workshop methods or individual conferences/tutorials.

Assignment:

NOTE: The following represent types of assignments in English 1A. WRITING:

- 1. Weekly out-of-class essays or out-of-class essays for which drafting/revision equivalent to a weekly essay are required.
- 2. In-class essays in response to reading essays or the Work of Literary Merit.
- 3. A research paper or essays for which library resources are used.
- 4. Specific exercises to work with aspects of writing, such as thesis invention; organization; development; style; tone; diction; etc.
- 5. Specific exercises in paraphrasing, summarization, annotation, recognizing logical fallacies, etc.
- 6. A journal in which students practice writing to various topics and responding to assigned course readings.
