

ART1.2: World Art History Since 1500: Section 4136, 7108: Saleh H

Course Description

This introductory art appreciation course surveys global artistic styles, including European, African, Asian, Oceanic, and American, from 1500 C.E. through contemporary times. The course focuses on the development, diversity, and interaction of art and cultural traditions and emphasizes comparisons of western and non-western visual expression as a reflection of differing cultural perspectives.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Place a work of art in its historical, cultural, and stylistic context.
2. Perform visual and critical analysis of a work of art using specialized vocabulary.

Dropping the Class

If you decide to discontinue this course, it is your responsibility to officially drop it.

Attendance

Regular attendance is critical to your success. A student may be dropped from the class when that student's absences exceed 5 class meetings.

Pass-No Pass (P/NP)

If you are taking this course on a pass/no-pass basis, then you must earn at least a C letter-grade to receive credit for the course.

Instructor Announcements

The instructor will post announcements on the "Instructor Announcements" page in Canvas throughout the semester. Canvas notifies students according to their preferred Notification Preferences. Students are expected to read ALL instructor announcements and will be held responsible for the content of those announcements.

Written Assignment Submissions

All written assignments are submitted electronically to Turnitin within Canvas. Do NOT submit your work through the Turnitin website directly. Follow the submission links within Canvas to submit your work. It is the student's responsibility to ensure the assignment submission has gone through successfully. Canvas recommends using Chrome or Firefox. Students will see a "paper" icon in the Gradebook for that assignment when the paper has been submitted successfully.

Here's the guide for how to submit a written assignment: Guide to Submitting Written Assignment

Late Policy

Written assignments are due before 11:55pm PST on the due date. A late submission will receive 10 points deduction as penalty for each day it's late. Written assignments will not be accepted if they're more than 9 days late. Late submissions are not allowed for any extra credit assignment.

Exams

There are 3 multiple-choice examinations, each with 100 questions and worth 100 points.

Exam questions come from the textbook and class lectures. If any exam is missed, a zero will be recorded as the score. Make-up exams will be given only in cases of emergency and at the discretion of the instructor. If permission is granted for a make-up exam, then the student must take the make-up exam within a week of the original test date. No make-up exams will be allowed for Exam 3 as it's due on the last day of the semester.

Grading Policy

Click the "Grades" link in Canvas to keep track of your grades.

Grades will be assigned as follows:

A	450 points or more
B	449-400 points
C	399-350 points
D	349-300 points
F	299 points or less

Course grades will not be rounded-up under any circumstance.

Standards of Conduct

Students are required to abide by the SRJC Student Conduct Code and Academic Integrity Policy. Violation of these standards is basis for referral to the Vice President of Student Services or dismissal from class or College.

Collaborating on or copying of tests or homework in whole or in part will be considered an act of academic dishonesty and result in a grade of 0 for that test or assignment. Students are encouraged to share information and ideas, but not their work. See these links on Plagiarism:
