TERM PAPER - DUE December 14th

Choose a specific wine, wine region, winemaking practice, grape cultivar or viticultural practice, and research it in depth. There are three parts to this assignment:

Part 1 Outline with Title and Thesis Statement	Due October 19 th	15 Points
Part 2 Rough Draft Critiqued by SRJC Writing Center	Due November 16 th	10 Points
Part 3 Final Draft BOTH Hardcopy & turnitin.com	Due December 14 th	75 Points
Term Paper Assignment Total		100 Points

Length: 5 or more typewritten full pages of text, double-spaced with one-inch margins. (The bibliography and pictures do not count as text.) Neatness counts. At least five references are required, and all references must be cited and internally referenced within the paper. The paper cannot cover more than one region. Ms. Parker-Wong will grade the Wine 1 papers, and Dr. Padgett will grade the Vit 1 papers.

SRJC Writing Center: The writing center will spend about twenty minutes with you giving you suggestions on your paper. Please plan ahead to visit the writing center. Alternately you can submit your paper online via the “Smart Thinking Online Tutoring” link in your Cubby.

For guidance on writing style, review the “Writing Tips for SRJC Vit 1 / Wine 1”

A hard copy of your final term paper is required (to Ms. Parker-Wong) on December 14th, plus the file must be uploaded to turnitin.com for acceptance. Instructions and passwords for uploading your paper to turnitin.com are provided on a separate page. A 10% deduction will be assessed each day the paper is late. Papers not received in both hard copy and on turnitin.com will receive an automatic zero.

COURSE CONTENT:Student Learning Outcomes:

At the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Identify the key wine wine-growing regions (appellations) throughout the world and the grapes grown in those areas that make the wines.
2. Describe the major winemaking processes involved in producing the most important wine styles world-wide.
3. Describe the typicity and sensory characteristics of the world's most important wine styles.
4. Produce an analytical tasting note using the Systematic Approach to Tasting.
