O Explanation of Assessments	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Discussion = You are expected to be logged in on time and to attend class in its entirety on every Tuesday for our synchronous Zoom meeting. You should also be prepared to actively participate. Participation is not simply a matter of speaking up. It also means demonstrating your comprehension of the reading, asking relevant questions, respecting others' opinions, thinking intelligently about the material, and being present. This means readings assigned for that week should be completed beforehand. There also will be graded on-line discussions throughout the course – this is what your discussion grade will be based on.

2. Quizzes = You will have a quiz once a week. These quizzes are there to ensure that you have an incentive to stay on top of your readings. They are also there so that the instructor can be sure that you are comprehending these readings. There will not be makeup quizzes. However, because life happens the two lowest quiz grades will be dropped.
3. Research Paper 1 and 2 = You are expected to write two 1,000 word papers in this course (double spaced, font Times New Roman and 1" margins). Besides the primary sources mentioned in each prompt and the course readings, the papers should draw from at least four other peer-reviewed or primary sources. Papers should have an introduction, a clear thesis statement, a conclusion and be properly cited using Chicago-style format. There should be at least two paragraphs a page, with at least two sources referenced per paragraph.

Prompt Research Paper 1 (due Thursday October 15 at 11:59pm): Write on one of the following:

1. Compare and contrast Thomas Paine's arguments made in Common Sense to Thomas Jefferson's arguments in the Declaration of Independence. How did both contribute to providing a rationale for the American Revolution? How do these rationales hold up in light of what you learnt in class?
2. Compare and contrast the Articles of Confederation with the United States Constitution. What shortcomings of the Articles of Confederation did the United States Constitution attempt to address? What issues proved to be especially controversial when the United States Constitution was being ratified? Be sure to make use of at least three Federalist Papers in your answer.

Prompt Research Paper 2 (due Thursday December 3 at 11:59pm): Write on one of the following:

1. The New York Times' 1619 project proposes a new narrative for the framing of US history (see this link). Rather than viewing 1776 as the founding year of the US, it proposes 1619 as a more accurate date. After exploring The New York Times' project more closely, how do you evaluate this argument? Be sure to use at least three primary sources when making your argument(s).
2. Compare and contrast the cause and effects of John Brown's raid on Harpers Ferry to the cause and effects of the Nat Turner Rebellion. What do both tell you about the position of slavery in pre-Civil War America? Be sure to use at least three primary sources when making your

	argument(s). Late submissions will lose 3% of a grade for each day they are late. Thus, a 95% paper will become a 92% paper if it is handed in one day late. Similarly, a 95% paper handed in two days late becomes an 89% paper, etc. Plagiarism: When you use other people’s words or ideas without giving them credit it is plagiarism. This includes using direct quotes without citation marks, copying directly from the web, an academic article, or a book without a citation. It can also be the borrowing a central idea from an author or a classmate without acknowledging them. Recycling a paper you have previously written for another course, or part of one of your own papers, is also considered plagiarism. It is a serious offense and will result in disciplinary action against you. If you are ever in doubt, please ask me before turning in your written work. For more information, please see the academic integrity policy below. 4. Midterm = The midterm consists of 20 multiple-choice questions and 4 short answer questions (each answer should be about a paragraph in length). 5. Final Exam = The final exam will consist of 4 short answer questions (each answer should be about a paragraph in length) and an essay.
P Academic Integrity Policy	All written work is to be original; plagiarism of any kind will result in a failing grade on that assignment. Students who plagiarize or cheat may be suspended – for one or two class meetings by the instructor – and referred to the Conduct Dean for discipline sanction, in cases of egregious violation. Please see Policy 3.11 for Academic Integrity.
Q Accommodation for Students with a Disability	If you need disability-related accommodations for this class, such as access to notes, test taking services, special furniture, etc., please provide the Authorization for Academic Accommodations (AAA letter) from the Disability Resources Department (DRD) to the instructor as soon as possible. You may speak with the instructor privately during office hours about your accommodations. Please contact DRD if you have not received authorization for accommodations. DRD is located in the Bertolini Student Center on the Santa Rosa campus, and Jacobs Hall on the Petaluma Campus.
R Course Website and Technology	Students will use the Canvas course website for assignment instructions, finding source materials, submitting assignments, viewing classmates’ work, sharing resources, and viewing grades. You need to make sure you have the following software installed and working properly on your computer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adobe Reader • QuickTime Player • Flash Player • Open Office (If needed) You should ensure that all your programs are up to date. If you have Zoom installed on your computer, please ensure you regularly update it to the latest software.
S Course Policies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student conduct – Attendance and active participation are important for the successful completion of this course. Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects awareness of common standards of decency and the rights of others. All students are expected to know the Student Conduct Policy and adhere to it in this class. Students who violate the code may be suspended from 2 classes and may be referred to the Conduct Dean for discipline.

- Class Notes – Students are responsible for their own class notes. Students absent from class should obtain notes from their fellow students. The instructor’s notes are not available.
- Make up Quizzes and Exams – The scheduled exam dates are firm. In case of an emergency situation (e.g. illness, death in the family), inform the instructor at least twenty-four hours in advance of the scheduled exam. A missed exam lacking appropriate documentation will count as zero points in the final grade.
- Technology and Papers – Last minute computer or typing crises (corrupted USB keys, crashing hard-drives, etc.) are not considered as acceptable emergencies.
- Netiquette – When engaging in online discussion, remain courteous at all times. Remember that you are communicating with other humans; there is a real person with real feelings on the receiving end of your email or discussion post. While the exchange of diverse thoughts and ideas is important in a scholarly environment, this should happen in a constructive and respectful manner, especially when engaging with someone who has different ideas. Capitalizing whole words is generally seen as shouting and is often perceived as offensive by the reader. Be careful when using sarcasm and humor. Since there are no social cues like facial expressions or body language in an on-line environment, such remarks can come across as hurtful or offensive. Finally, writing should be professional and consist of complete sentences, be free of grammatical errors, and avoid spelling mistakes.
