- Class Information: ESL 716 is an intermediate class that focuses on improving the language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing to help students use English every day at school, work, business and social situations. We will discuss personal experiences, issues and problems in the workplace, schools and the community.

Books and Materials:

English in Action #4 – Student Book and Workbook
Various handouts and lessons from teacher
3-ring binder for notebook paper and handouts
Pencils and erasers

- Attendance: Class begins promptly at 6:30 p.m. Please be on time. Students who are absent more than 3 consecutive classes without communicating with me will be dropped. Also, students missing more than 5 classes for any reason without communicating with me will be dropped.
- Conduct: Respect each other. Absolutely no talking while another student is talking. Please turn off your cell phones during class. Texting is not allowed. Cell phones in the classroom are a serious distraction. Please respect the classroom environment by not using your phones during class time.

Student Learning Outcomes:

ESL 716 – Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Use reading, writing, speaking and listening skills to clearly communicate and understand ideas in personal, academic and vocational settings.
2. Employ culturally appropriate skills to communicate effectively with diverse cultural groups at work, school and in the community.
3. Demonstrate study skills needed to matriculate to credit ESL courses.

- Assessment: According to the Non-Credit Career Development College Preparation (CDCP), students will be given a grade of P-promotion to the next level, SP-sufficient progress, but remain at current level, NP-no pass - you have not completed enough work, or W-withdraw. All grades are available to students through SRJC-my Cubby system.
- A CASAS reading comprehension test will be given to students at the beginning and end of each semester to measure students' progress for the semester.

Please bring your student identification number (ID #) to every class.
