Teaching Approach

This course is an intensive college-level course for gaining the linguistic and cultural foundations of meaningful oral and written communication in Japanese, including handwriting, typing, and the hiragana ひらがな, katakana カタカナ, and kanji 漢字 writing systems. You will study via asynchronous readings, videos, and assignments prior to the Zoom sessions, which will be used mainly for review and reinforcement through instructor and class interactions. Thus, participation in discussion boards, remote class sessions, as well as breakout room group activities are important for meeting our goals, and required.

An Overview of each module's assignments is provided at the beginning. Assignments are usually spaced one or two days apart throughout the week to encourage continuous practice, but are best finished in advance, prior to the due dates. Each week, the next week's modules will be published on Friday.

An overview of upcoming submission deadlines can be seen in the Calendar. However, some deadlines, such as video viewing deadlines, do not have a submission link and do not show upon on the Calendar. To keep track of weekly deadlines, please carefully read the Overview at the beginning of each week's Module as well as any Announcements. You may also see upcoming assignments (those with an assignment link) on the online version of the Syllabus as assignments are published.

This is not a conversational or high-school level class and will require a high degree of personal responsibility and time commitment. You are encouraged to plan your schedule well, using tools such as the Canvas calendar. At the same time, the best way to progress is to have fun!

Important Dates

Day Class Begins: August 16 at 4 pm

Last Day to Add without instructor's approval: August 22

Last Day to drop semester length class and be eligible for refund: August 29

Last Day to Add with instructor's approval: September 5

Last Day to Drop without a 'W' symbol: September 5

Labor Day Holiday: September 6 (No Class)

Last Day to Opt for Pass/No Pass: September 26

Professional Development Day: November 10 (No Class)

Thanksgiving Day Holidays (No Classes): November 25-28

Last Zoom Class Day: December 8

Last Office Hours: December 13

Final Exam: December 13-14

Dropping the Class

If you decide to discontinue this course, it is your responsibility to officially drop it to avoid getting no refund (after 10% of course length), a W symbol (after 20%), or a grade (after 60%). Also, for absence during the first Zoom meeting OR several consecutive, unexplained absences, the instructor may drop a student.

Pass-No Pass (P/NP)

You may take this class P/NP. You must decide before the deadline, and add the option online with TLC or file the P/NP form with Admissions and Records. With a grade of C or better, you will get P.

Once you decide to go for P/NP, you cannot change back to a letter grade. If you are taking this course as part of a certificate program, you can probably still take the class P/NP. Check with a counselor to be sure.

Instructor Announcements

The instructor will post announcements on the “Instructor Announcements” page in Canvas throughout the semester. Canvas notifies students according to their preferred Notification Preferences as soon as the instructor creates an Announcement. Instructors may also periodically email individual students at their registered email address.

Participation and Attendance

Students who fail to attend the first Zoom class or do not log-in to an online class after the second day of the semester will be dropped from the class. It is strongly advised that if you need to miss more than one class/homework deadline in a row that you contact me to avoid being dropped from the class.

Excused attendance credit, which may be provided based on your contacting the instructor in advance, documentation, and the instructor’s discretion, will be 1 point out of 2.

For class participation, students will be given a grade (0–2) for each class, which I will record every time. (2: active participation based on good knowledge of material; 1: participation with fair knowledge of material/attendance of part of class/excused absence; 0: poor or no participation).

The participation portion of your grade (20%) includes mandatory discussion postings as well as mandatory attendance of Zoom sessions. Most weeks will include a discussion posting assignment.

Participation in office hours is encouraged for questions and extra practice.

Late Policy

Most assignments are due at midnight Pacific Standard Time on the due date (check due dates and times for exceptions). Late submissions are not accepted without prior arrangement. With a granted extension, late homework will be accepted with a 33 percent markdown, up to one week later than the original due date. One lowest homework score is dropped automatically.

Quizzes and Exams

There will be several online quizzes, as well as online midterm and final exam. The material comes from the textbook, class lectures and supplementary materials. If any assessment is missed, a zero will be recorded as the score. One lowest quiz score is dropped automatically. Makeup quizzes, tests, and exams are not allowed. It is your responsibility to take the online quizzes, tests, and exams by midnight of the due date at the latest.

Grading Policy

Visit the “Grades” in Canvas to keep track of your grades. I grade at least once a week and post grades and comments on the online Canvas gradebook.

The lowest quiz score (not including the midterm or final) and the lowest homework will be dropped. If taking Pass/No Pass, you need to accrue at least 70% of the total class points and to complete the midterm exam and the final exam to pass the class.

Final grades will be assigned as follows:

Final Grade Calculations

A	90%	90 points or more

Standards of Conduct

Students who register in SRJC classes are required to abide by the SRJC Student Conduct Standards. Violation of the Standards is basis for referral to the Vice President of Student Services or dismissal from class or from the College. See the Student Code of Conduct page.
(<https://student-conduct.santarosa.edu/>)

Other Important Policies and Practices

Avoid Plagiarism

Collaborating on or copying of tests or homework in whole or in part will be considered an act of academic dishonesty and result in a grade of 0 for that test or assignment. I encourage students to share information and ideas, but not their work. See these links on Plagiarism:

SRJC Writing Center Lessons on avoiding plagiarism \_ \(http://srjcstaff.santarosa.edu/~jroyal/research/plagiarism/plagiarism.html\)

SRJC's policy on Academic Integrity \_ \(http://www.boarddocs.com/ca/santarosa/Board.nsf/goto?open&id=A63TMC78051C\)

When preparing homework for this JPN 1 class, students are permitted to use online dictionaries such as Jisho \_ \(https://jisho.org/\) to look up individual words, but should not use translation software such as Google Translate to translate entire sentences. Assignments suspected to be generated with an electronic translator may be considered plagiarized. Assignments suspected to be completed with reference to answer keys or external sources without attribution and without using a different-colored pen for corrections may also be considered cheating.

The video below reviews what plagiarism is and how not to do it.

Netiquette

Netiquette refers to using common courtesy in online communication. All members of the class are expected to follow netiquette in all course communications. Use these guidelines:

- Use capital letters sparingly. THEY LOOK LIKE SHOUTING.
- Forward emails only with a writer's permission.
- Be considerate of others' feelings and use language carefully.
- Cite all quotations, references, and sources (otherwise, it is plagiarism).
- Use humor carefully. It is hard to "read" tone; sometimes humor can be misread as criticism or personal attack. Feel free to use emoticons like :) for a smiley face to let others know you are being humorous.
- Use complete sentences and standard English grammar to compose posts. Write in proper paragraphs. Review work before submitting it.
- Text speak, such as "ur" for "your" or "ru" for "are you" etc., is only acceptable when texting.

Zoom Etiquette

- Please mute your microphone if you are not speaking, to reduce background noise.

- Please keep your video on, in order to encourage participation. If you need to turn your video off, please privately message the instructor. If you do not have a web camera, please also let the instructor know.
- If your connection is unstable, however, I recommend you try to turn your video off to see if it helps.
- If you need to walk away from your computer for unforeseen reasons, please let me know via Chat message. If I call on you and you do not respond, you may be removed from the session and put into a waiting room.
- Please arrive on time and leave when excused. To help me take roll, please write in your name in the Chat Box at the beginning (ex: John Smith desu--it is John Smith) and say one word at the end (ex: Sayoonara--good bye). If you need to leave class early, please let the instructor know in advance. In addition, you can excuse yourself by typing, "Shitsureeshimasu" (excuse me).

Special Needs

Students with disabilities who believe they need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact Disability Resources (527-4278), as soon as possible to better ensure such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion.

Caveat

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus and will notify students of those changes in class.
