COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:
At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:
1. Perform effectively in a large jazz ensemble.
2. Execute a wide range of big band music accurately with stylistically appropriate articulations and attention to detail (horn players).
3. Interpret a wide range of big band music accurately with stylistically appropriate comping and rhythmic setups on a sight-read (rhythm section).
4. Improvise effectively in a big band medium.

Objectives:
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:
1. Accurately interpret and perform classic and contemporary jazz band literature.
2. Appropriately improvise over chord changes with attention to limitation of form and interaction with background figures.
3. Demonstrate technical proficiency in the performance of selected literature with emphasis on increasing dexterity.
4. Sight read college-level literature for large jazz ensemble accurately.
5. Evaluate and critically analyze their musical performance for future improvement.

Students repeating Jazz Band will be able to:
1. Demonstrate greater technical achievement on their instrument.
2. Articulate musical phrases with greater clarity.
3. Perform with higher standards of intonation.
4. Demonstrate a more sophisticated comprehension of dynamics, phrasing, musical expression, and nuance.
5. Demonstrate greater skill in sight-reading.
6. Perform a more extensive repertoire.

Topics and Scope:

I.   Advanced technical study dedicated to increasing agility, control of articulation, and control of intonation in extremes of register.
II.   Sight-reading of college-level jazz band literature.
III.   Rehearsal and public performance of classic and contemporary works for large jazz ensemble.
IV.   Study of particular technical challenges specific to the literature studied.
V.   Jazz articulation techniques specific to the literature studied.
VI.   Special challenges in intonation and blend in the performance of the literature studied.
VII.   The components of musical expression, such as phrasing, dynamic contrast, and nuance.
VIII. Differences in musical style specific to the literature studied.
IX.   Critical analysis and comparison of the different artistic goals specific to the literature studied.
X.   Shaping improvised solos over a limited number of choruses.
XI.   Improvising around complex background figures.
XII.   Performance etiquette and proper performance dress.

Students repeating Jazz Band will perform new literature each semester, building on both their skill level and knowledge

Assignment:

1. Preparation of the music outside of the classroom with emphasis on good practice habits and effective use of the rehearsal time available. The minimum practice time should be 1 hour per week per hour of rehearsal.
2. Attendance at and participation in all rehearsals and concerts.
3. Attendance at and participation in sectional rehearsals or rehearsals at different venues with soloists when scheduled.
4. Final exam will be a public concert.
5. The selected concert repertoire will dictate additional assignments to meet the requirements for that literature.

Students repeating Jazz Band will be held to higher standards of performance with each repetition.
