COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Engage in conversations and presentations in ASL, using statements, questions, descriptions, narrative elements, and referents, while modeling behaviors that are culturally appropriate among ASL signers.
2. Use and comprehend vocabulary as used for everyday or specialized topics and activities, including recognition of sociolinguistic variation.
3. Use more advanced grammatical and compositional structures through the study of ASL literature and discourse, such as temporal aspect variations, when clauses, conditionals, storytelling conventions and types of discussion.
4. Discuss historical and contemporary perspectives on ASL and Deaf culture, including sociolinguistic and intersectional variations in the Deaf experience.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of signing and fingerspelling with accuracy.
2. Compose comprehensible sentences and passages with communicative purposes, displaying accuracy in ASL parameter and grammatical usage.
3. Generate questions, requests, narratives, and informational presentations using simple to complex grammatical structures involving subjects and predicates.
4. Respond to signers and audiences, using common ASL vocabulary, metalinguistic feedback, and clarifications related to everyday and specialized topics.
5. Use greetings, interactions, conversational, discussion, and presentation techniques in a culturally appropriate manner.

6. Correctly interpret or evaluate content from authentic ASL texts.
7. Use intermediate to advanced grammatical structures involving subjects and predicates.
8. Use fingerspelling to express names, lexicalized signs and loan words.
9. Develop, organize, and sign narratives and presentations
