Course Description

This class is for non-native speakers of English with limited ability to function independently in English in everyday situations. Particular emphasis on reading and writing skills needed in a variety of academic, vocational, and community settings.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:
1. Employ reading strategies to comprehend short reading passages.
2. Use vocabulary-building strategies to learn the meaning of new words.
3. Respond in writing to adapted selections of fiction and non-fiction readings.

Requirements

Required Textbook: ESL 714RW Reader ($5.25)

Attendance Policy
Students will be dropped for not attending the first two classes. If you must miss class, please text or email me. A student may be dropped after three absences. Positive attendance hours are recorded and count towards your grade.

Student Evaluation and Promotion
Students will be given progress grades at the end of the semester (P, SP, or NP).

Grades are based on:
- Attendance/Participation
- Quizzes/Tests
- Written Responses
- Final Assessment

Behavior
This is a college course and student behavior must show respect to all people in the academic setting. Disruptions of any sort affecting the instructor's ability to conduct class will not be tolerated.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
If you need disability-related accommodations for this class, you may speak with me privately during office hours about your accommodations.
