COURSE CONTENT

EMLS 715 and 716 Course Learning Outcomes and Objectives

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Use reading, writing, speaking and listening skills to clearly communicate and understand ideas in personal, academic, and vocational settings.
2. Use appropriate cultural skills in interactions at work, school, and community
3. Demonstrate study skills needed for success in academic environments

4. Utilize a variety of verb tenses, grammatical structures, and conventions of writing and punctuation in an organized paragraph
5. Use appropriate pronunciation, intonation, and word stress to communicate more effectively in conversations at work, school, and in the community.

Class Lesson Material

- Read, discuss, and practice textbook materials and handouts.
- Speak in conversations, role-play dialogues, and interviews with classmates.
- Learn and practice vocabulary and grammar by speaking and listening.
- Practice dictation and pronunciation with textbook and Internet audio on a computer or cell phone.
- Take quizzes (short tests) and dictations.
- Give oral (speaking) presentations in front of the class.

HOMEWORK

It is very important that you review all the class material before each class and practice everyday what you have learned in class. To improve your speaking and listening skills you need a personal commitment to practice. Remember, mistakes are a part of learning. Please feel comfortable to make mistakes - and ask a lot of questions!

Final Grades

Students in this class will receive a grade of P (Pass = 80% or higher) SP (Satisfactory Progress = 70%) or NP (Not Passing = 69% or below). Progress is based on classwork, attendance and participation as well as tests.

Attendance policy

Students may be dropped after the second missed class meeting, unless they have contacted the instructor and arranged to make-up the missed classes. Please send me a message on Remind if you are unable to attend class.

Class Rules

- Come to class on time.
- Come to class prepared. Bring supplies and do homework before class.
- Show respect to everyone: the teacher, classmates, and yourself.
- Put cell phones on silent during class.
- Have a fun and interesting semester!

Santa Rosa Junior College Support for Students with Disabilities

If you need special accommodations in the classroom because of a disability please contact the Disability Resources Department (DRD), located at Santa Rosa Main Campus in Bertolini Student Center, 3rd Floor East, or call (707) 527-4278.

Emergency and Safety

Don't leave valuable possessions in the car for others to see. After class, walk to the car with other students. If you need to wait for a ride or the bus, please ask a classmate to wait with you.
