COURSE CONTENT

Outcomes and Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate technical facility on percussion (drum rudiments, scales, arpeggios, etc.).
2. Analyze the melodic, harmonic, rhythmic, and formal structure of the compositions being studied.
3. Define and discuss the elements of music as they appear in the repertoire and explain how they determine style.
4. Evaluate various styles of music as they relate to performance.
5. Demonstrate proper performance practice, stage deportment, and recital preparation.
6. Plan, organize, and demonstrate integrated practice procedures.
7. Critically evaluate their own performance and the performances of others.

Students repeating this course will be able to:

1. Demonstrate greater technical achievement as a percussionist.
2. Articulate musical phrases with greater clarity.
3. Demonstrate greater skill in sight-reading.
4. Perform more difficult repertoire.

Topics and Scope:

I. Individual Instruction Module

- A. Rehearsal and preparation of standard repertoire for percussion.
- B. Technical exercises (drum rudiments, scales, arpeggios, etc.) appropriate to the individual student's level of ability.
- C. Etudes and/or other study pieces to improve technical and interpretive abilities.

- D. Memorization techniques for selected assigned compositions.
- E. The harmonic, rhythmic, and formal structure of the compositions being studied.
- F. Background information on the composers of assigned repertoire - how their compositions reflect the culture and style of a given era.

II. Recital Hour Module

- A. Stage deportment and recital preparation.
- B. Rehearsal and practice techniques.
- C. Coping with stage fright.
- D. Preparing for an audition.
- E. Objective evaluation and critique of musical performance.
- F. Student performances (each student must perform at least once per semester).
- G. Master class performances (when scheduling permits).
- H. Juried examination before a faculty committee at the end of each semester as a final examination.

III. Laboratory Module

Guided practice of materials and techniques presented in the previous modules.
(Students repeating this course will perform new music each semester, building on both their skill level and knowledge of the repertoire.)

Assignment:

1. Rehearse and prepare assigned repertoire for recital and juried performance.
 2. Practice other etudes and/or study pieces as assigned.
 3. Memorization of selected repertoire may be required.
 4. Live concert report (2-3 pages) focusing on critical evaluation of the musical performance.
 5. Listening assignments as needed to enhance abilities of evaluation, critical judgment, and discrimination.
 6. Minimum of one class performance per semester during Recital Hour.
 7. Final juried performance.
- (Students repeating this course will be held to higher standards of performance with each repetition.)
