COURSE CONTENT

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Choreograph and direct a full length dance piece to be performed in a dance concert.
2. Create a dance piece that reflects a selected theme, includes choreographic devices, shows skillful use of choreographic form, and reflects musicality.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Apply teaching and communication skills to effectively convey choreography to dancers and to evoke movement and performance qualities from them as appropriate to a dance piece.
2. Apply knowledge of choreographic principles to the creation of a dance.
3. Combine elements of choreography, musical accompaniment, costuming, and other theatrical elements to communicate an artistic intention.
4. Evaluate aesthetic elements of a dance piece.
5. Evaluate personal effectiveness as a pre-professional choreographer.
6. Analyze the work of other choreographers and apply gained insights to one's own professional choreographic processes.
7. Describe the pre-production steps involved in a dance concert.
8. Assimilate and perform choreography in rehearsal (for students performing in fellow student pieces).

Repeating students: Each semester the student will be presented with new learning experiences in the process of choreographing a different piece related to a different theme.
